Working From Home

As we enter a period in which many people are working from their homes, it's good to know that the importance of radio in listeners lives is strong (a Nielsen survey from last weekend indicated as much). The latest Nielsen Scarborough USA+ database shows that 90.1% of those persons who always or mostly work at home are reached by AM/FM radio each week.

Well the unofficial start of summer has officially begun. All my life I have always looked forward to the beginning of summer. There's just something about it. The anticipation of the carefree summer days, a far less rigid schedule, less demands and everything seems to let up a little. I think we're conditioned to think that way growing up in our school system.

For me, not so much this year; and I don't mean to be a downer. I don't know about you, but with all that's been going on this country I have been extremely challenged of late as a Christ-follower. The Apostle Paul instructs us in 2

Timothy to, "Be ready in season ad out of season." This exhortation comes in the context of ministry and if you read chapter 4, you'd swear it is a message to us today. But, how do you get there in today's climate with fear for your physical health and wellbeing? The answer is in Joshua 1:5, 7-8, "No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you. 7 Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go. 8 This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success."

So, please don't forget to stand with us over these summer months to keep the music and programming going; and be strong and of good courage in the Lord. Enjoy your summer and don't forget your sunscreen.
