We have seen how radio can play a role in sharing the gospel in a non-confrontational way. Many people will not walk through the door of a church, but they will listen to a radio program, or download Christian music for their personal use because it can all be done in privacy. This makes POWER 88 and WBHY Christian talk radio very effective tools for communicating to people who have a spiritual void in their lives, but don't know how to fill that void.
