The work session started at 4:30 p.m.

Finance & Budget

1. Superintendent's 2018-2019 Proposed Budget

Todd Lowe, Finance Officer, presented the Superintendent's 2018-2019 Proposed Budget for the Board's review and any questions. Mr. Lowe shared that there would be a public hearing on the proposed budget as well as a recommendation for the board's approval at the April 17, 2018 Board of Education meeting.

Operations

1. Discussion of calendar options

Marty Trotter, Assistant Superintendent, presented several potential calendar options with regard to the possibility of exams prior to the holiday break in December. The Board discussed the different options. After review, the consensus was to begin discussions and receive input from administration regarding these options.

2. School safety

Marty Trotter shared a few reminders of where we are and what the school system has in place with regard to school safety as well as discussion with the Board in regards future ideas.

Superintendent's Office

1. Overview of upcoming Board of Education and staff events/issues

The Superintendent presented an overview of event dates for the remainder of the school year. He reminded the board members about the April Work Session and Board meeting being held on Tuesday, April 17 instead of April 16.

The work session ended at 6:00 p.m.
