Sharks Championship Ring Presentation Sept. 23

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA - The Houston County Varsity Sharks will be presented Championship Rings during a dinner on Sept. 23 at 6:30 p.m. The rings are in recognition of the team winning three state championships during the 2018-2019 school year in handball, football and basketball. The Sharks have won a total of 25 state championships since the team's inception. The dinner will take place at El Jalisciense's restaurant.

Christy Jones, orthopedic impaired teacher, is the area coordinator of the program. In addition to Jones, the Sharks coaches are: Adapted PE Specialists Stephen Roberson and Tracy Fendley; Anna Henry, Langston Road Elementary teacher; Melissa Ring-Hartman, Northside High teacher; Bryan Watts, Warner Robins High teacher; and Community Coaches Jeff McDaniels, Ben Masters and Ryan Brown.

In 2008, the Houston County Board of Education approved adding this adapted sports program to offer students with physical disabilities the opportunity to play wheelchair basketball, football and handball. The sports are sanctioned by the Georgia High School Association.

El Jalisciense's is located at 1224 Russell Parkway in Warner Robins. For more information, please contact Jones at 478-396-2022.
