Perry High Students Win Georgia National Livestock Show Awards

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA - Perry High School students won several awards at the Georgia National Junior Livestock Show at the Georgia National Fairgrounds and Agricenter in Perry. Congratulations to Perry High's FFA students for the following awards:

- ★ Champion Beef Herdsman;
- ★ Champion Purebred Market Gilt - Logan Miller, 10th grade;
- ★ Overall Reserve Champion Barrow & Division Champion - Abbi Rainwater, 10th grade (pictured left, center of picture);
- ★ Reserve Division Champion Gilt - Paige Paschal, 12th grade;
- ★ Reserve Champion County Group of 5 Steers;
- ★ Reserve Champion Shorthorn Steer - Shelby Breaux, 12th grade (pictured right, far right of picture);
- ★ Multiple Class Winners throughout the Market Hog Show and the Steer and Heifer shows.

Ashley Denton serves as the Agriculture Teacher and FFA Advisor at Perry High School. The livestock show was held Feb. 19-20, 2020.

The annual Georgia National Junior Livestock Show is the largest livestock show in the state of Georgia. FFA and Georgia 4-H students from across the state come to Perry to compete in a variety of livestock competitions to include steer, heifers, junior commercial dairy heifers, hogs, commercial breeding doe (goats) and junior breeding ewe.

Perry High School is located at 1307 North Avenue in Perry. Dr. Wesley "Del" Martin serves as principal. For more information about the FFA program, please contact Denton at Ashley.Denton@hcbe.net.
