Dr. Jenny Millward Honored as Outstanding Georgia Educator

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Dr. Jenny Millward, Director of Student Services, has been honored with the Jim Puckett Outstanding Educator Award by the Georgia Council of Administrators of Special Education (G-CASE). The Puckett award is reserved for individuals who “personify the leadership qualities modeled by GAEL’s third executive director, Dr. Jim Puckett.”

Dr. Millward has worked in the field of special education for 28 years, to include 27 years in the Houston County School District. For 16 years, she has served as an administrator. Previously she was a district-level Autism Support Teacher; she also taught at Warner Robins Middle and Bonaire Middle.

Dr. Zabrina Cannady, Assistant Superintendent for Student Services stated, “I am so proud that Dr. Millward received this well-deserved honor. She leads by example and inspires our team each day to work hard with dedication and love for students. Dr. Millward exemplifies the Houston County Way!”

G-CASE serves the members of CASE who live and work in Georgia. The organization’s major goal is to improve services to children with special needs. G-CASE promotes professional leadership, provides an opportunity to study common problems, and communicates through discussion and publications information to improve services for exceptional children.

The central office is located at 1100 Main Street in Perry, Ga. Dr. Millward may be reached at 478-988-6200, ext. 3374. Visit <https://www.hcbe.net/student-services> to learn more about the Student Services Department, and visit <http://gcase.schoolinsites.com/> to learn more about G-CASE.
