The meeting was called to order by the president, Billy Lee.

Forrest Mulkey made a motion to approve the minutes for December, seconded by Rick McAfee. The minutes were approved.

Angie Raney made a motion to approve the financial and expenditure reports for December. Forrest Mulkey seconded the motion. Motion passed.

TECHNOLOGY UPDATES – David Henderson reminded the board that the E-Rate window opened January 14, 2015 to file requests for reimbursement of purchased technology services. This window will be open through March. Mr. Henderson has been hosting PARCC workdays to help teachers and test coordinators with PearsonAccessNext Training. Part of this training supports schools in meeting the February 6, 2015 deadline to schedule test sessions for monitoring.

Statewide infrastructure trial (practice test) for PARCC testing will take place February 2-4, 2015.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT/UACCH – Mrs. Morris told the board that, per Laura Clark at UACCH, teachers that are delivering concurrent credit classes must have 4 hours of professional development training. Ms. Clark is requesting that those four hours count toward the required 60 hours. The board discussed this and unanimously agreed that those hours should count as professional development and be counted as part of the contracted 60 hours.

TEACHER CENTER UPDATES – Monica Morris

PARCC – Manuals have been released and are on the Avocet website. Mrs. Morris told the board that the Teacher Center can print these if they need more, since the number of manuals each school will be given is not clear at this time. If interested, let her know.

The ADE is planning a webinar at the end of January for District Test Coordinators. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

TESS – If a principal is not physically in the classroom during the evaluation, the law states that a 360° camera must be used.

Mrs. Morris reminded the board that the ADE cannot advise schools regarding Teacher Fair Dismissal. Advice must come from legal counsel.
DYSLEXIA – Mrs. Morris spoke about the committee that met with Joyce Elliot regarding dyslexia. They have discussed three possible changes to the law:

- Clarify the definition of the terms dyslexia therapist, specialist, and interventionist
- Determine the level of training required for each of the roles listed above
- Clarify school district’s requirement for services when parent receives an outside evaluation

OTHER INFORMATION:

The Arkansas Department of Higher Education’s concurrent credit policy was recently updated and is effective for the Spring 2015 semester.

The ADE is working on ESL training for summer.

AIMM trainers must attend a one-day recalibration on May 12, 2015, May 21, 2015 or May 28, 2015. Mentors who received AIMM training last year will not be required to attend recalibration or additional training at this time.
