Schools added to GaDOE Georgia Reward Schools List Centerville, Eagle Springs, Huntington, Morningside, Shirley Hills and Tucker

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – On Dec. 19, the Georgia Department of Education announced additional 2019-2020 Reward Schools. With the addition of Huntington Middle School and Shirley Hills Elementary School, Houston County has six schools on the Reward Schools list. Previously announced were Centerville Elementary, Eagle Springs Elementary, Morningside Elementary and Tucker Elementary.

This designation is awarded to the top five percent of the greatest-improving Title I Schoolwide schools in Georgia. Reward Schools also maintain the performance of their economically disadvantaged students, students with disabilities and English learners.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Mark Scott said, “I am very proud of our schools and this accomplishment. Recognition as a Georgia Reward School is a result of the hard work of our teachers and administrators, as well as the partnership we have with our parents.”

State School Superintendent Richard Woods said, “These schools are overcoming barriers, meeting challenges and producing great gains for their students. I commend the school leaders, teachers, parents and communities who are opening up opportunities for their students.”
