7.	Superintendent's Report: Bruce Beasley <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Written report attached The Collaborative Committee will met on December 6 in Stewartstown. This committee is at a critical point in the process as it begins planning the strategies for rolling out the option that has separated itself from the others. Making sure that the public is informed and has had a chance to ask questions is crucial. GEAR UP held a regional meeting on 11/28 in Gorham. I was joined by Elaine Sherry, Dawn Pettit and other staff from SAU #7. The meeting was good as the cohort schools discussed recent events, shared ideas for future events, and looked at options that could support students down the road. The College Roadshow was well received and will be planned again. We also spent some time discussing a program called i-tutor that GEAR UP NH is willing to invest in for cohort schools. We will meet as a smaller group to discuss the potential that i-tutor has for Stewartstown. Basketball season is underway. I was able to attend the first contest for our athletes on December 4th in Colebrook. The JH girls were able to pull off a win. I did not notice many players from Pittsburg on the junior high school teams. I did note some Pittsburg girls preparing to play in the varsity games however. If you have a chance to swing by to see them play I am sure that they will appreciate it.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The administrative team met in Pittsburg on Tuesday morning. Our agenda included the review of the school calendar, the call for UbD leadership, and a discussion about staffing for next year. The team continues to look for ways to share staffing and to increase options for our students. A reminder that the Pittsburg School concert is scheduled for December 19th with a start time at 6:30 p.m. As was mentioned at our last board meeting by Mrs. Pearson, the numbers are pretty good and the kids are looking forward to performing. The elementary grades will all perform and once again the high school chorus will be joined by members of the Colebrook chorus.
