CLASSROOM NEWS

This week in Preschool we had "Farm" week! We made farm animal prints, did sheep art with cotton, practiced more cutting, and made farm animals using different shapes. This week our books are: There Was An Old Lady Who Swallowed A Cow!, Click Clack Moo: Cows That Type, Miss Moo Goes To The Zoo, The Cow Loves Cookies, Color Farm & Cock-A-Moo-Moo.

For two weeks (October 5-18) APS will be hosting a virtual book fair! There will be a link on the school website and also on the school Facebook page. The spirit days are listed on those same pages as well as my October calendar. Not only will you be helping our school out with every purchase, but your child benefits so much from reading books together at this age and in my personal opinion, children's books are the best!

"A book is a gift you can open again and again."
