

Fifth Grade Essential Skills for Math

September

- I can use the order of operations to solve number sentences.
- I can read and compare decimal numbers.

October

- I can plot and name ordered pairs.
- I can add and subtract decimal numbers.

November

- I can estimate the answers to decimal multiplication and division problems.
- I can order and compare fractions with like denominators.
- I can change fractions to decimals and percents.

December

- I can divide multi-digit numbers and interpret and display remainders.

January

- I can recognize and write equivalent fractions.
- I can order and compare fractions.
- I can add and subtract fractions and mixed numbers.

February

- I can describe, classify, and draw two dimensional figures.
- I can find the area and perimeter of triangles and quadrilaterals.

March

- I can describe, classify and draw 3-D figures.
- I can draw and use a net to find surface area.
- I can find the volume of prisms using a formula.

April

- I can find the mean, median, mode and range of a set of numbers.
- I can create and interpret bar and line graphs.

May

- I can use and apply the learned standards in real world situations.