BETA CLUB

By: Lilly Urban & Layla Cox

Do you know what Beta Club is? Well, before you turn down the idea of joining this club, Mrs. Davis may be able to answer a few of your questions. I know she did for us!

What is Beta Club?

"It is a service based club for kids who take pride in their grades. The kid's grades are what I look for when going through applications. It is an academic club for service."

How does Beta Club help the members in the future?

"Being a member gives pride in community and pride in grades. It also helps maintain strong academics and with becoming a well rounded person. By performing service it teaches responsibility."

What are usually the most popular projects in Beta Club?

"Make A Wish or anything with animals. They also enjoy Shoeboxes For Soldiers."

How many people do you let in?

"There's no limit however it depends on their grades and teacher recommendations which I take very seriously. It could be 100. Last year I let 80 in."

Ready Player One
Book and Movie Review

*By: Jason Ford, Jackson
West, and Iris Xue*

In Ready Player One by Ernest Cline, Wade Watts was a normal teenager in the year 2044 until the death of multi-billionaire who put out a video titled "Anorak's Invitation". It stated whoever found the Easter egg hidden in his game the "OASIS" would get all of his estate and the billions of dollars he has amassed. To find the egg, the hunters must find the three keys and three gates. For Wade and the entire world, the hunt is on.

"The movie Ready Player One was mediocre. I thought it was interesting to see a lot of the iconic references and faces in the movie. They did a decent job of adding all of the characters, making it feel like a real virtual reality video game. The movie was based off the book Ready Player One by Ernest Cline and many people really enjoyed it. However, the movie changed a lot of things from the book, which led many of its fans to like it less. The book had a lot more to do with the keys, which made them more interesting. The movie had to change it because it would have taken too much time; they had to shorten it. The movie also has a lot of things that doesn't make any sense like the ice cream truck escaping a military grade vehicle or Artemis going in and out of the I.O.I. and not getting caught. Things like this just make the movie unrealistic. The movie would've done much better on its own, but because the book was there, its movie counterpart just wasn't good enough. In another world, I think it would have been considered a great movie, but there were too many things that felt unrealistic that made the movie worse." -Jackson West

In an interview with Mrs. Westcott, she some questions about why she wanted to be the swim team coach, what she wanted the team to accomplish this year and what she enjoys about swimming.

Question 1: Why did you want to be the swim team coach?

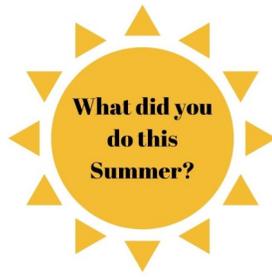

I was a competitive swimmer growing up so I figured I'd do it for the kids at DC.

Question 2: What do you want the team to accomplish this year?

I want them to grow closer, feel more confident as competitors and realize they can achieve great things with hard work.

Question 3: What do you enjoy about swimming?

It feels very free, you can pick it up and learn how to do it at any age, and being in the water just seems fun.

We interviewed some students to see what they did this summer. We got a variety of answers. The answers included:

- Going to the beach,
- Going to Florida
- Cruises
- Playing videogames
- Summer Camps
- Visiting Oklahoma, Texas, Wyoming, Eudora, Georgia, Mexico, Jamaica, Arkansas, Arizona, Wisconsin, Alabama, the Bahamas, & Sardis Lake
- Attending weddings
- Setting up a VSCO hangout
- Six Flags
- Playing sports like swimming, basketball, football, & soccer
- Relaxing and watching Netflix and YouTube

We hope everyone had a really good summer! We hope you all have a really good year!

Fashion Tips

By: Meghan Bradford

Fashion is a way of expressing yourself. There are truly no rules to fashion. You choose your aesthetic, yet some people might have trouble finding what they like to wear, so I am here to give you 3 easy tips.

The first tip is, "Don't be too 'matchy, matchy'". This is where a lot of people go wrong. Some try to match every single piece of clothing, but trying to be matchy is just... tacky. Therefore, I suggest that you be yourself and get out of your comfort zone.

The second tip is to get creative. This is a big part of fashion. Getting creative can make you stick out and, in some cases, make you feel confident. You should try to wear something that most people wouldn't. Who knows? You might start a trend.

The final tip is to be confident in what you're wearing. This is a very important. You should always be confident in what you are wearing because when you aren't, it shows. For instance, if you want to wear bright pink, DO IT! You must walk with confidence. If you look good, you'll feel good.

The Reality of Life In Space

By: Jaydn Norman & Franchezca Ulanday

There are one hundred billion galaxies and 7 planets, who is there to say we are alone? There has been many theories and evidence circling around aliens and their existence.

Back in 1997, a host on a radio show got a frantic phone call from a man who claims that he used to work in Area 51 and aliens are taking over. The man quotes, "... uh they are not what they claim to be...uh...they have INFILTRATED a lot of aspects of the military establishment particularly Area 51!" For years people have been conspiring about aliens and there has been so much evidence, yet no answer has been found. Before the man could explain the service cuts out leaving the audience in shock. What does this mean? Did they really take over?

Paul Hellyer, the Canadian minister of defense, even claims that aliens are real and are present to this day. What does a man with high technology, high publicity, and high ranking in the system have to gain from lying about aliens?

Who knows what's out there? Maybe there's a third party? 4? 5? We have barely explored the universe; we can't say what is real or fake?
