

Randolph County School System “STAR³ Students” for September 2019

Archdale Elementary School - Ashley Small - 4th Grade

Ashley Small is a considerate and giving young student. She shows kindness and respect to her classmates and teachers at all times. Ashley often helps others and demonstrates patience, especially when working with striving learners. Her positive and pleasant demeanor is evident in the kind greeting she offers in the hallway and her willingness to hold the door open for others. Ashley is an all-around good person and a wonderful addition to our student body. We are proud to honor Ashley Small as Archdale Elementary School's STAR³ Student for the month of September.

Archdale-Trinity Middle School - Kelsie Harris - 8th Grade

Kelsie Harris exemplifies what it means to be an Archdale-Trinity Middle School (ATMS) Bulldog. Though there are many characteristics that appropriately describe an ATMS Bulldog, integrity and hard work are the ones most evident in Kelsie. She chooses daily to work for excellence, ask questions, and push through challenging work until she meets success. Kelsie is a leader who acts as an example for others. Her welcoming smile, kind manner, diligence, and perseverance, even in the face of challenges and outside disruptions, make her a STAR³ Student. Kelsie Harris is an excellent example of what it means to “Be More Dog” and is Archdale-Trinity Middle School's STAR³ Student for September.

Braxton Craven School - LaNya Townes - 6th Grade

LaNya Towne comes to school each day prepared for class and actively participates in lessons. She displays a willingness to help other students and adults. LaNya is kind to all classmates and includes her peers in discussions. She exhibits determination to obtain good grades. We are proud of the hard work and positive spirit that LaNya has exhibited this school year. The staff and students at Braxton Craven School are proud to have LaNya Townes as a part of the Bulldog family and congratulate her on being selected our STAR³ Student for September.

Hopewell Elementary School - Hunter Bailey - 5th Grade

Hunter Bailey is happy and excited to be at school every day. He overcame obstacles during the last school year, and his perseverance is evident as a student. Hunter shows an eagerness to learn and help others in his class. He is respectful toward his teachers and students. We are fortunate to have Hunter Bailey as a Honeybee, and we congratulate him on being selected Hopewell Elementary School's STAR³ Student for September.

John Lawrence Elementary School - Ollie Norman - 5th Grade

Ollie Norman is a passionate learner who works hard and always shares her bright smile. She is a leader in the classroom and is the first to volunteer to help teachers and her peers. Ollie exhibits a growth mindset and positive manner in all situations. She is the perfect example of a shining star and we are proud to have her as a John Lawrence Lion. Congratulations to Ollie Norman, John Lawrence Elementary School's STAR³ Student for September.

New Market Elementary School - Layla Boyd-Jordan - 4th Grade

Layla Boyd-Jordan tackles all obstacles placed in front of her with a positive approach and resilience. She excels in all areas of academics and works hard on any task or project. Layla's perseverance and tenacity are motivating for all who come in contact with her - including students and staff members. It is an honor to have her as a student at New Market Elementary School. We congratulate Layla Boyd-Jordan for showing her Bobcat best and for being selected New Market's STAR³ Student for September.

Randolph Early College High School - Taylor Wallace - 12th Grade

Taylor Wallace is a well-rounded individual. She is always happy, positive, and smiling. Taylor is not afraid to let you know who she is, what she believes in, or what she stands for, which creates a character trait that we all aspire to have. Taylor's passion is to serve others, as evidenced by her volunteer and mission work, from tutoring freshmen in Math 1 to spending her summers in foreign countries serving underprivileged communities. Taylor is a young humanitarian who cares deeply about the well-being of others. We know she is off to great things and could not be more proud to call her a Raven. Randolph Early College High School is excited to name Taylor Wallace our STAR³ Student for September.

Trindale Elementary School - Kylie Cromer - 5th Grade

Kylie Cromer is a kind and caring young individual. She has had a great start to the year and overcome some recent challenges. Kylie is a quiet leader in the classroom, helping her classmates, taking responsibility for her work, and volunteering in class discussions. She does not let any challenges get in the way of her efforts to succeed in and out of the classroom. "The dale" is proud to have Kylie Cromer as our STAR³ Student for September.

Trinity Elementary School - Micah Nelson - 5th Grade

Micah Nelson is eager to walk through the school doors each morning. His infectious smile and positive approach leave teachers even more excited for their day. Micah's hardworking nature, determination, and willingness to learn win over the heart of his teachers. He has excelled within the classroom and displayed academic growth. Micah also builds long-lasting positive relationships with classmates through witty jokes and ingenious handshakes. He has a bright future filled with adventure and promise. Trinity Elementary School is proud to honor Micah Nelson as our STAR³ Student for September.

Trinity High School - Chris Rutayisire - 12th Grade

Chris Rutayisire is one of the most humble and hard-working students on the Trinity High School (THS) campus. Well-spoken, but not outspoken, Chris is deeply rooted in service to THS and the surrounding Archdale-Trinity area. He has volunteered his time to serve as a Bulldog Buddy for multiple years, mentoring students at Braxton Craven School. Most recently, Chris acted as a student ambassador at Freshman Orientation, representing our school and setting the tone for the incoming class of 2023. In addition to serving his community, Chris has remained near the top of his class academically, and has been a critical part of three sports teams since beginning at THS. Congratulations, Chris Rutayisire, Trinity High School's STAR³ Student for September.

Wheatmore High School - Abbey Parrish - 12th Grade

Abbey Parrish has been a vital part of the Wheatmore community since her freshman year. She plays both varsity volleyball and softball and is a member of the Beta and HOSA Clubs. Abbey is active in her church community and volunteers in our Functional Skills classroom, where she always brings a big smile and a positive approach. Working alongside our students in that classroom has given Abbey a sense of fulfillment and purpose as a student leader. She is going to be a vital part of the "Dream on 3" initiative at our school. This experience as a Jr. Dream Team member will give Abbey vital skills that she can take with her as an adult and help her in her future endeavors as a nurse. Wheatmore High School is proud and excited to announce Abbey Parrish as our STAR³ Student for September.
