Brayden Isabell is a senior with a strong work ethic who takes his after school job seriously. He will remember most his classmates. The biggest challenge he’s had the past four years has been waking up. However, his dad (his most influential role model) has helped keep him motivated to keep waking up, so he can face the day.

Brayden doesn’t have any set future plans. He also isn’t bothered by the thought of being where he is now in 10 years. His advice to the underclassmen is, “Just do it!!!”

Senior Night

After a basketball season of learning and growing, Seniors Tylar White and Rachel Kelso, both escorted by their parents, were celebrated for all their years in the school. Coach Hayley and the team presented the girls with pictures of their previous and current basketball days, flowers, keepsake boxes, and college survival kits. It was sweet end to their basketball careers, and they felt so loved by all their family, friends, and community.

Top Shots

The Archery Team has attended The Clinton Tournament and the Cole Camp Tournament this past month. They have already shown such dedication and poise, and we know the team will continue to get stronger.

Artist Highlight

Sierra Houk paints with flurry! These projects were featured in the Senior Art student's show: Fireworks painted by a flurry of marks in watercolor, macadamia nut chocolate cookie, painted with acrylic, for national cookie day, Alice in wonderland, painted by stenciling her outline, a Christmas ornament with horizontal stripes painted with cake temperas, abstract in yellow, blue, and violet created by using acrylic, then folding in half to give symmetry to each half print, sugar skull, drawn with markers, finally, a poppy for Veterans Day.

Farewells Are Not Forever

Calhoun said, "See you later," to two of our cooks this month. Joyce Langston was offered a job in the Windsor School District, and we know the students will love seeing her smiling face every day. Shonda Self was given the opportunity to fulfill her dream of opening her own diner.

Ms. Shonda's Diner will be located in Warsaw, MO. Ms. Shonda also got some extra surprises: the students made Shonda farewell cards and a sign; the faculty and staff signed a card; she was presented with flowers, and the picture she took with almost all of her Calhoun kiddos was matted and framed for her to hang in the diner. As always, because we celebrate with style, there was also a carry in lunch. Shonda was overwhelmed in the best way, and she sent an email later that day thanking everyone for the surprises and reminiscing: "I have shared and made many memories with family, friends, students and their families here in the past 11 years. I will never forget my days as an Eagle."

Cherished Memories

Hawthorn Bank donated a picture of the old Calhoun High School to the Calhoun R-VIII. It is hanging on the Elementary Office wall. The picture was painted by Keith Adams and was at the Calhoun Bank and then the Windsor Bank (which has now closed).

Newsletter Updates

As my team compiles and assembles the newsletter every month, we can't help but think about our readership, the ones who keep coming back for more month after month, the ones who eagerly await the latest updates on all things Calhoun R-VIII. We want to ensure that our loyal readers are receiving the newsletter every month, so we have decided to create a mailing list. Please, contact the school and let us know if you would like to be on that mailing list.

We can be contact 3 ways:

- drop by during school hours and leave a message for Jessica Iuchs
- call me at school at (660) 694-3422 ext. 2105
- or email me at jiuchs@calhoun.k12.mo.us

When you contact us, please have your name and address ready. Thank you for all your support; it means so much to our Calhoun family that you are invested in us, especially to the students.

The Seniors Proudly Present

Pie Wars

The teachers have gathered...

The pies are whipped...

Which four will get creamed?

Every penny counts as the top two elementary and top two high school teachers who earn the most money will be selected. Every time a student contributes to a teacher's bucket, that student's name goes into a drawing for who gets to throw the pies.

There are two ways to vote:

- ★ Put money in your favorite teacher's bucket to help them get pied.
- ★ Put money in other teacher's buckets to save your favorite teacher from a sticky situation.

Voting will begin March 4th and end March 6th. The winners will be announced March 7th at 2:30, with a Pie War at 2:40 in the gym.
