Weekly Information Blast: February 3, 2021

Report Cards: Report Cards for the 2nd 9 weeks will be distributed next week (Feb. 8-12). Your child's school will provide more information regarding specific days and times for pick-up.

Transition Back to School Survey: At this time, no decisions have been made regarding whether there will be a return to school or a continuation of virtual learning. In order to get your feedback, please complete the Parent Survey here!

Student Attendance: At last Thursday's Community Conversation, Judge Debra Giles helped stress the importance of daily student attendance, even through virtual learning. Students are expected to be present in all classes, and the attendance laws are still in effect for students. On February 1st, the SCCSD put its new attendance plan into effect in hopes of helping improve student attendance. The plan seeks to communicate frequently with parents for all student absences. You can view the Community Conversation again here! The attendance plan is also available on our website at this link!

National School Counseling Week: This week, we honor all of our counselors in the SCCSD. Though they often work behind the scenes, they are the individuals who can often reach our students when no one else can. Not only do they provide social and emotional support, but they also ensure that student schedules are correct, and so many more things! If you get a chance, thank your school counselor and let them know that you appreciate them!
