The Yard Sale

Blake bought the coolest vase.

On the front of it, there is a face.

On the back, there is a cave.

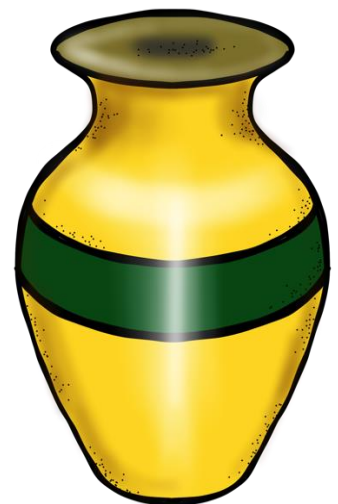

Next to that, there is a wave.

He bought it at his friend's yard sale.

He also bought a big stuffed whale.

He bought his mom a pale pink cape.

He got his dad a roll of tape.

Out to the Barnyard

I went out to the barnyard
and I got myself a rake.

I picked up a big hay bale.

I began to make
a clean cage for my pony.

My pony's name is Jake.

He is a tame pony,
and his stall is by the lake.

Uncle Steve

My uncle Steve used to be an athlete.

He really used to love to compete.

Now, he has a job pouring concrete.

He is making a porch that he must complete.

He is working with his best friend Pete.

I hope that they don't overheat!

I have the flu.

My fever is high.

I can't go out and play.

My little brother has it too.

I wish I could delete this day.

I hope tomorrow's better.

I want this scene to go away.

My Dream

Last night, I had the strangest dream.

I was flying a kite by a hive.

Then, I walked over to a stream
to wait for a mime to arrive.

I saw a lively football team
swing across the stream on a vine.

They took me out for ice cream
because I could not drive.

Bad Day

It was so cold outside,
that our water pipe broke.

Now I can't even enjoy a good soak.

We put logs on the fire
and they started to smoke.

Then, I got a flat tire.

This day is a joke.

Something Special

I got my mom an ice cream cone.

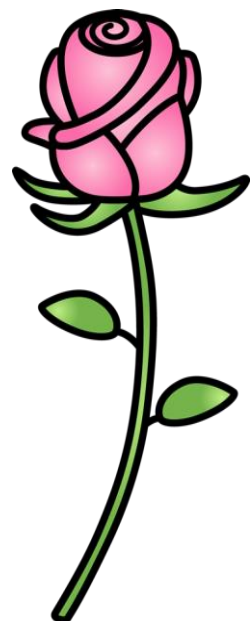

I got my dog a nice big bone.

I took it home along with a rose.

I should get my dad something too, I suppose.

Maybe I will get him a special stone?

I know! I will bring him a nice warm scone.

Camping

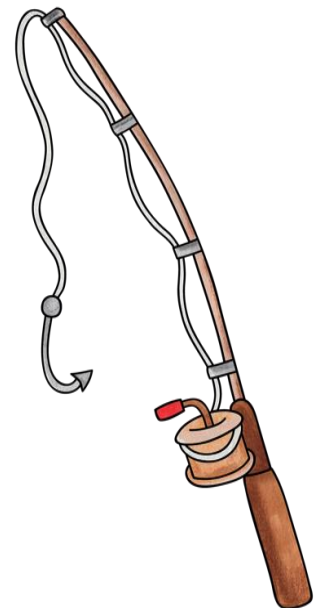

I packed my robe into a tote.

I grabbed my fishing pole.

I packed some clothes and put on my coat.

We are camping by the watering hole.

The last time we went on our boat,
we saw a hedgehog and a mole.

Yule the Mule

Yule the Mule thought
he could carry a tune.

His friends thought his voice was grim.
They did not like it when he started to croon.
They wished that they could mute him.
But Yule was such a happy dude,
he sang along with Kim.

Science Teacher

The teacher took a tube
and dropped in a sugar cube.

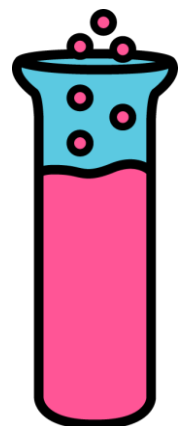

She switched off the fuse.

It started to ooze.

Then the fume
filled the huge room.

The smell was so crude.

The entire class booed.

Poor Jack

Jack was playing hockey one night.

The puck flew up quite high.

It was hard to see without much light.

It hit Jack in the thigh.

Too bad Jack didn't move to the right,
or that he wasn't more spry.

Movie Night

I watched a scary movie one night.
I decided to watch it without a light.

That movie gave me such a fright.
My heart is racing, and my stomach is tight.
Will I see it again? I think I might!
I hope that I will be alright.

Go Fly!

The little bird was trying to fly.
Every day she looked up at the sky.
As all her friends went zooming by,
the little bird began to cry.

Then, she gave her tears a dry.
She thought she would give it one more try.
And off she went! My, oh my!

Chy and Ty

Chy was a girl who was very shy.
She went out to eat with her friend Ty.
She asked the waitress for a fry
and also a piece of pumpkin pie.
She watched a fly go buzzing by across the bright blue cloudless sky.

Birthday

Happy, happy birthday to you.

At your party, we will have a petting zoo.

There will be a bunny and a snake.

Then, we will all have birthday cake.

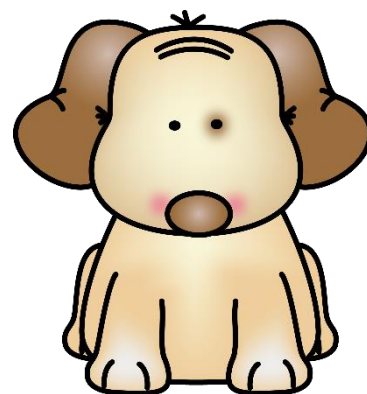

There will be games and candy too.

Happy, happy birthday to you!

My Puppy Billy

One dreary muddy day,
I took my puppy outside to play.
He didn't care that there was no sun.
We always have a lot of fun.
My puppy is cute and very silly.
He is black and white. His name is Billy.
There is hardly a day that goes by without some fun for my puppy and I.
