Angela's Ashes Test and Answer Sheet Project

Directions: You are to design a test for Frank McCourt's novel, Angela's Ashes. You must develop questions using the guidelines below. There should be nothing more or nothing less than what is listed.

- You should create a section for each type of questioning.

- The Test and the answer key MUST be typed.

- You will staple the two together with the test on the top and the answer key at the back.

- On the answer key, you are required to provide the answer to each of your questions, including the discussion question. This means that you will have to write the full response. This is part of the requirement and the grade.

- The questions need to be thought provoking questions such as the ones that we developed in class; ask questions that invoke thought or real knowledge (specifically in the short answer and discussion section)

- Use Arial, Calibri, or Times New Roman as your font (10-14 as your size; you can choose)

- The test and answer key will total 175 points. Note the breakdown with the required sections below
