OUR LEGAL DUTY

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this Notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this Notice while it is in effect. This Notice takes effect September 4, 2008 and will remain in effect until we replace it.

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by law. In addition, we may make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our Notices effective for all health information that we maintain, including health information we created or received before we made the changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this Notice and make the new Notice available upon request.

You may request a copy of our Notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this Notice, please contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

We use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment and healthcare operations. For example:

Treatment:

We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you.

Payment:

We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you.

Healthcare Operations:

We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations. Healthcare operations include quality assessment and improvement activities, reviewing the competence or qualifications of healthcare professionals, evaluating practitioner and provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities.

Your Authorization:

In addition to our use of your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this Notice.

To Your Family And Friends:

We must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of this Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you agree that we may do so.

Persons Involved In Care:

We may use or disclose health information to notify, or assist in the notification of (including identifying or locating) a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care, of your location, your general condition or adverse outcome. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosures of your health information, we will provide you with any opportunity to object to such uses or disclosures. In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up x-rays or other similar forms of health information.

Marketing Health-Related Services:

We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.

Required By Law:

We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or the health or safety of others, as otherwise required by law.

National Security:

We may disclose to military authorities the health information of Armed Forces personnel under certain circumstances. We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence and other national security activities. We may disclose to correctional institution or law enforcement officials having lawful custody of protected health information of inmate or patient under certain circumstances.

Appointment Reminders:

We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with appointment reminders (such as voicemail messages, postcards or letters).

PATIENT RIGHTS

Access: You have the right to look at or get copies of your health information, with limited exceptions. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies. We will use the format you request unless we cannot practicably do so. You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your health information. You may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. We will charge you reasonable cost-based fee for expenses such as copies and staff time. You may also request access by sending us a letter to the address listed at the end of this Notice. Contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice for a full explanation of our fee structure.

Disclosure Accounting:

You have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclosed your health information for purposes other than treatment, payment, health care operations and certain other activities over the course of the last six (6) years, but not before September 4, 2008, as that is the date the Tooth Taxi commenced operations. If you request a disclosure accounting more than once in a twelve (12) month period, we may charge you a reasonable fee for responding to these additional requests.

Restriction:

You have the right to request that we place additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your health information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in an emergency).

Alternative Communication:

You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information by alternative means or to alternative locations. (You must make your request in writing). Your request must specify the alternative means or location, and provide satisfactory explanation how payments will be handled under the alternative means or location you request.

Amendment:

You have the right to request that we amend your health information. Your request must be in writing, and it must explain why the information should be amended. We may deny your request under certain circumstances.

Electronic Notice:

If you receive this Notice on our web site or by electronic mail (e-mail), you are entitled to receive this Notice in written form.

QUESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS

If you want more information about our privacy practices or have questions or concerns, please contact us.

If you are concerned that we may have violated your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision we made about access to your health information or in response to a request you made to amend or restrict the use or disclosure of your health information or to have us communicate with you by alternative means or at alternative locations, you may contact us with your concerns using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. You may also submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address to file your complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services upon request.

We support your right to the privacy of your health information. We will not retaliate in any way if you choose to file a complaint with us or with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Patient Rights and Information

Each patient shall have the right to:

1. Be treated with respect and dignity
2. Treatment which is free of discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, disability, or sexual orientation
3. Safe and efficient treatment
4. Treatment that meets the standard of care of the profession
5. Voice their personal feelings via verbal or written means
6. Information concerning their diagnosis, and planned treatment for their dental needs
7. Obtain information as to any relationships this facility has with other professional individuals or medical facilities, in so far as their care is concerned
8. Expect confidentiality in communications and records pertaining to their dental treatments
9. The information necessary to give informed consent to treatment

Patient Responsibilities

Each patient /parent/legal guardian shall be responsible for the following:

1. Completing and returning to the school permission slip and all required consent forms for child to receive treatment
2. Providing accurate and complete information for use in notification of dental needs and appointments
3. Keeping appointments and notifying Tooth Taxi staff if unable to do so
4. Asking questions when he or she does not understand something
5. Being respectful and considerate of all staff and other patients being treated by the Dental Foundation of Oregon's Tooth Taxi
6. For their own actions, should they refuse treatment or for not following instructions given to them by the dental staff
7. To provide responsible transportation and assistance if needed
8. To follow all Tooth Taxi policies and procedures

Patient Risks

The risks of dental procedures are usually minimal. Risks may include reaction to anesthesia, bleeding, and infection. The x-ray system that the Tooth Taxi uses minimizes radiation exposure compared to conventional x-rays. Producing digital images significantly reduces radiation exposure. If there are additional potential risks, the treating dentist will contact the parent/legal guardian and/or patient. If you have further questions regarding any potential risks, please contact the Tooth Taxi prior to your child's visit.
