I took my dog out near the cliff.

He put down his nose and began to sniff.

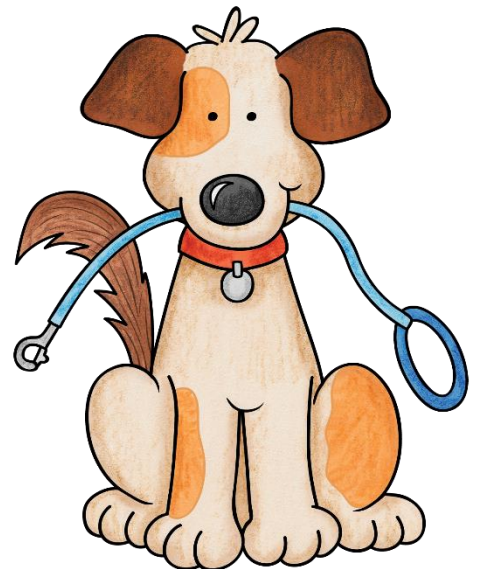

I carried my staff as I walked along.

I ate some taffy and sang a song.

The clouds in the sky were nice and puffy,
but I had a cold and my nose felt stuffy!

My dog got a bit too close to the bluff.

We headed home with all our stuff.

The Sheriff

Sheriff Jeff rolled up his cuff.

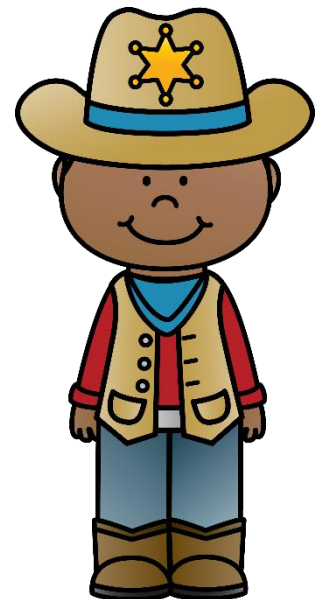

He grabbed his coat and his earmuff.

He ran out in a giant huff.

He had to do a lot of stuff.

He needed to get gifts for his staff
and pick up food for his giraffe.

He stopped to get some waffles to eat at the taffy store on Buffy Street!

The Troll

There was a troll
who wanted a roll.

He cooked some on the grill.

He took a stroll
to a grassy knoll,
and ate until he had his fill!

Bull and His Ball

A bull sat by the waterfall.
He watched the water flow.

A tear filled his eye
as he watched his ball
fall in the lake below.
Well, it looks like it is off to the mall I go!

Before Chess

Before I can play chess,
I must clean up my mess.
My clothes all need a press,
and I must wash my dress!
I will toss out all my trash.
I'll be done in a flash.
I can't miss the chess bash!

What to Pack

When Jess and I go exploring,
there are a few things that we pack.

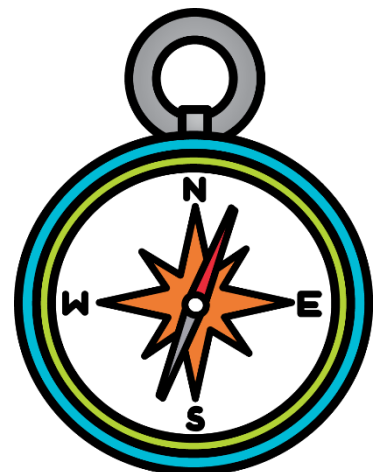

We take our trusty compass.

We always take a snack.

We take a glass of water.

We take a chunk of Swiss.

But before we do any of this,
we make sure mom gives us a kiss!

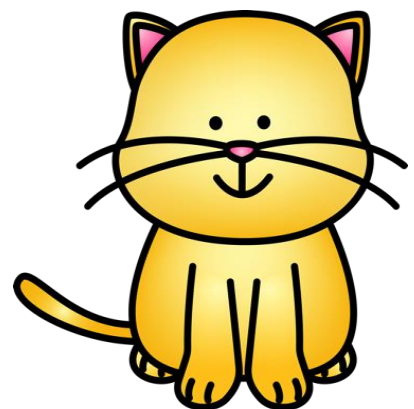

Getting a Tattoo

Brett wanted to get a tattoo,
but he wasn't sure what to do!

He got a tattoo of a kitten
and another one of some mittens.

He wanted one of a little cow,
but his friend Matt said,
"That's enough for now."

Trip to the Store

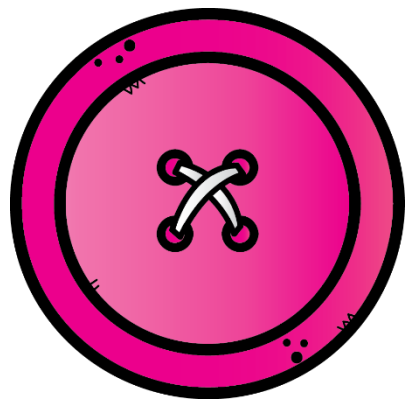

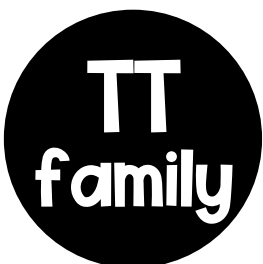

Betty went to the store.

She needed a battery, but there is more.
She needed a button and some butter too.

She needed putty
and a potted plant that's new.

She needed cotton balls
and confetti that was blue!

Now, Betty's trip to the store is through!

Zena's Party

Zena's party was very fun.

First, she squirted the nozzle at everyone.

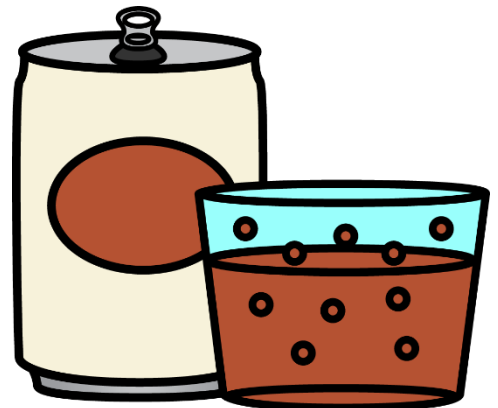

Then, we all had pizza to eat.

And soda with fizz for another treat.

We turned in circles until we were dizzy.

Everyone was in such a tizzy.

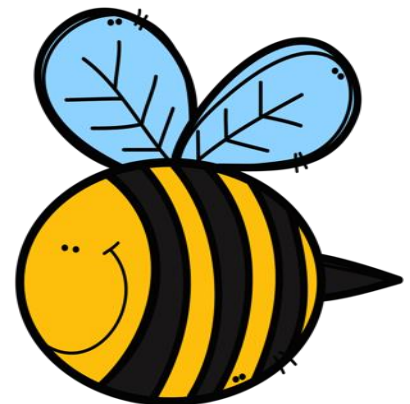

We did a big puzzle to end the day,
then we just hung out to play.

Busy Bee

In the garden, I heard a little buzz.
I saw a bumblebee all covered in fuzz.
It whizzed by my ear as dazzling as could be.
It was so pretty, it filled me with glee.
I followed it with my eyes until I was dizzy.
That little bee sure was busy!
