

Weekly Message from North Canaan Elementary School

Wednesday, April 10, 2019

Please take a moment to review the following information:

Reminder: Tomorrow is Spring Portraits. This year's spring's portrait program is similar to the fall program. All students will be photographed and portrait packages will be printed for students who place an order on the forms or online until Picture Day. Any student who does not order pictures will receive a Personalized Order Sheet (POS) to bring home. Families can then order anything they would like online, and those orders will be shipped directly to their home.

Final Day to order Yearbooks is Friday, April 12th

Music Department News

- The date for the Spring Concert (and Art Show) has been changed to Thursday, May 23. The concert will begin at 7pm. All Band and Chorus students will be participating. Apologies for the confusion. We had to reschedule to accommodate events affecting many of our concert participants.
- Saxophone and clarinet reeds can be purchased through your local music store or online. All students who play these instruments should have their own reeds in their cases to use during lessons and band. An economic option is Rico reeds, size 2.5 (or size 2 for 5th graders, although 2.5 is encouraged).

PTO News:

- * Munson's Chocolate Pick Up - Today from 3:30-5:00pm
