HCHS Student Wins Third in Congressional Art Contest

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – A Houston County High School senior, Lauren Booth, won third place in Congressman Austin Scott’s 2020 Congressional Art Competition for Georgia’s Eighth District. Booth’s artwork, “Caged,” will be on display in Rep. Scott’s Warner Robins District office for one year.

“The Congressional Art Competition is a great way to showcase the talents of high school students from across the Eighth District, and this year’s submissions were certainly no exception,” said Congressman Scott. “I am amazed by all our talented students who submitted artwork and the art teachers and parents who supported and encouraged them along the way. As I pass by these great works, either in our district offices or in the U.S. Capitol, I will be reminded that the work we’re doing today is to ensure a brighter future for them.”

Houston County High School is located at 920 Highway 96 in Warner Robins. Dr. Doug Rizer serves as principal. He may be reached at Doug.Rizer@hcbe.net or 478-988-6340. Katherine Wyatt serves as the school’s visual arts teacher; she may be reached at Katherine.Wyatt@hcbe.net. Click here for more information on the Congressional Art Competition.
