

Week 2 Work

It appears that this shutdown may last longer than initially intended. I have been working on a way to give you useful content in a consistent manner that does not require you to constantly download files from my website. I am also facing the challenge of either reviewing topics you already know during this time or asking you to cover new and potentially difficult material without direct instruction.

To address all of this I have decided to do a personal finance and budgeting unit with you through Google Docs. These can be printed and worked on at home, you can write on your own paper at home, or you can save the files to your own drive and edit them there.

The unit will begin this week with the first several lessons covering taxes. You should complete one lesson per day. I am putting the guide and links for this first week below:

Monday: Lesson 1.1 Taxes and Your Pay Stub

https://docs.google.com/document/d/17-QT9JpCjgID_cSmjunbwnXFND63qZfJJyti7_PxaY/edit#

Tuesday: Lesson 1.2 Teens and Taxes

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/11CP9jUBKiB32FIGtApAuroPmYbDVpUIMoGskfKxp9jI/edit#>

Wednesday: Lesson 1.3 The Tax Cycle and Job Paperwork

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1uFK9010355BVn4KFiQTKAmKMHeksQ8u-uRex7ghi544/edit#>

Thursday: Lesson 1.4 How To File Your Taxes

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1gELQCHJ8aMkvqRq5AMNttm1YYPYc-FMAF0AsNCAJZbo/edit#>

For each lesson start with the “Resources” block on the left and follow the blue links to videos, slides, etc... to view the content. Then answer the questions as instructed in the corresponding block on the right under “Questions”. When it asks for an Exit Ticket at the end, write 3 sentences about what you learned in the lesson.

I am posting another document to assist you if you have issues with this format, accessing information or what to do. Also feel free to contact me with any questions or issues!

Good Luck!!! Stay safe and healthy!!!