

School an important part of life. Learning is the key that opens the door to our futures. In order to become what we dream to be, we must learn. Without school it would be very difficult to achieve the dreams we have. We must, because of this, strive to get the best out of this experience and try to attend each day. The following students have done just that. The following students have had perfect attendance during all four years of high school:

Catherine Davis

Dawson Edwards
