Hello, Families,

This week's message features the details of our reopening plan. We are still preparing for a full reopening with all students returning on Tuesday, September 8, for the first day of school. If you read the Region One Reopening Plan last week, the link below will look familiar. We have taken the Region One plan and added specifics for our school. Beginning on page 9 you will see a column on the right side labeled NCES Actions. That column includes our details:

Tuesday, August 4, at 6:30 PM is our live Google Meet with Lisa Carter, Interim Superintendent, and Erin Drislane, Board of Education Chair. I will be discussing specifics from the link above.

I look forward to talking with you on the 4th so that we can work together for success. After reading the plan if you have any specific questions you would like me to address at this meeting, please send them to me in advance at aroy@nceschool.org. Thank you to those who have already sent questions. It is important to me that all of your questions are answered and concerns addressed.
