what love isn't

By Yrsa Daley-Ward
2014

Yrsa Daley-Ward is a spoken word poet, self-published author, and actress of Jamaican and Nigerian heritage. In this poem, Ward uses figurative language to explore what love is and is not. As you read, take note of how the poet uses figurative language to describe love and the effect it has on the overall theme.

- [1] It is not a five star stay. It is not compliments and it is never ever flattery.
It is solid. Not sweet but always nutritious
- [5] always herb, always salt. Sometimes grit.<sup>1</sup>
It is now and till the end. It is never a slither, never a little
- [10] it is a full serving it is much too much and real never pretty or clean. It stinks — you can smell it coming
- [15] it is weight
it is weight and it is too heavy to feel good sometimes. It is discomfort — it is not what the films say. Only songs get it right
- [20] it is irregular it is difficult and always, always surprising.
