Principal's Points

Dear Parents/Guardians:

Thank you to all our volunteers this week who were All In for the Enchanted Book Fair and Donut time with Dads. We had a great week and on some days I think our teachers had more fun dressing up than the students.

Teachers and students are all excited to end the week by spending time with grandparents and grandfriends. We will be starting the day off with Mass together then each class will have activities, breakfast, and a chance to visit the book fair together.

Please be sure you are reserving your free tickets for the Bishop's Family Faith Fest. Scroll down for details. There will be some great activities and nationally known artists performing at the festival. I'm hoping to see everyone there on Oct. 27.

Thank you for all the support you give our school!

Peace

Linda Umoh

Today is a day to appreciate our grandparents and grandfriends. Everyone should be in regular uniform (no PE) and we will begin our day with Mass.

1. Grandparents can come to school and check in between 7:45-8:10 and go to their grandchild's classroom. They can check in at two locations: the front entrance by the office or in the breezeway by the Angel's Wing. You will then walk to church and sit with the class.
2. Grandparents who come late can go directly to Mass, find your grandchild, and sit with the class. If there is no room, please sit behind them. You will then check in after Mass on the way back to the school then proceed to their grandchild's classroom. We will have a table set up as you enter the breezeway from the church.
3. Grades 5-8 with grandparents who wish to visit the bookfair will proceed directly to the bookfair after Mass and stop to pick up siblings along the way.
4. All other classes will go to their classrooms for their breakfast after Mass.
