

HAPPY EASTER

From St. Stephen Catholic School

Lady Bird Johnson once said, "Where flowers bloom, so does hope". Throughout this Lenten season we've seen many mustangs come together in a variety of ways. As a community, we thrive on helping and supporting each other; from many people being one to supporting others on a buddy bench. Students, staff, and administrator have gone out of their way to support members of our community. Great job making it happen Mustangs! During this Lenten season let us all follow in the Son of God's footsteps showing love and tolerance for all.. Submitted
